GEORGE H. RYDER,

Chairman and treasurer of the trustees.

The Dunbarton Free Library has very little to report for the year ending 1895.

There have not been any additions to the library the past year, as the town did not make any appropriation for the purchase of books. Three distributing agencies have been established, and in that way the books are well circulated through the town, and more interest taken in the library. The "Record of the Rebellion" was presented by the state library ; a book on " Christian Science," by Mrs. M. F. Berry, of Manchester, also several books have been sent from Washington by Congressman Baker, for which we are grateful.

The circulation of books has not been as large as last year, and we would ask for an appropriation this year, if only a small amount, so that the interest in the library so well started may not diminish.

HANNAH K. CALDWELL,

Librarian.
